

Welcome to the Seed Library!

The Seed Library is free and open to Hillside Public Library cardholders of all ages.

Borrow

Choose your seeds and record your choices on the sheet provided.

Limit 4 seed packets per person per month.

(The seeds are yours to keep, no need to check out at Circulation.)

Plant

It's time to plant! Follow the directions on the label. Seeds have been acquired from multiple locations. Please refer to the seed company indicated on the seed packet for more information.

Share

Save your seeds in an envelope. Provide as much information as you can about your seeds. Return your saved seeds to the reference desk.

Visit our website and follow us on social media to learn about upcoming gardening and planting programs.

Sign up with your email to get updates on seed library news and programs.

Books on gardening and seed saving are located in the non-fiction section, call number 635.

Not sure where to start? Ask a librarian for help.

hillsidelibrary.info/seed-library

The Hillside Library does not guarantee the successful germination of any plant from the seeds offered. Visit the seed company website for more information about planting and growing your seeds.

Planting and Growing:

New York Botanical Gardens:

https://libguides.nybg.org/?group_id=13609

Cornell Cooperative Extension, Nassau County:

<https://ccenassau.org/horticulture>

The Old Farmer's Almanac Planting Guide:

<https://www.almanac.com/gardening/planting-calendar/NY/New%20York>

Native Plant Finder:

<https://www.nwf.org/NativePlantFinder/>

Seed Saving

<https://www.almanac.com/how-save-vegetable-seeds>

<https://www.seedsavers.org/saving-seeds-for-beginners>

hillside.library.info/seed-library

Special thanks to Hicks Nurseries and Island Harvest, whose generous donations helped start this seed library.

The Hillside Library does not guarantee the successful germination of any plant from the seeds offered. Visit the seed company website for more information about planting and growing your seeds.